NEW! Larry's Quizzes -- Penalty Doubles

We hope you had a good Halloween. The holiday got Larry thinking about scary bridge moments. There's no scarier moment than when you make a clear-cut penalty double and at partner's turn he starts to think. How do we know when a double is for penalty or for takeout? Experience is a big part of it. This quiz will test your knowledge of penalty doubles, but only take it if you are pretty comfortable with takeout doubles.

LC Classic -- What Should We Play?

The most frequent question Larry gets asked is, "What should we play?" His answer is almost always "less." Learning new conventions can be fun and is a simple way for players to feel like they are improving, but learning the newest conventions isn't a shortcut to bridge greatness. Focus on the essentials and on play and you'll really improve your game. In this introduction to a series, Larry talks about the first 4 conventions to learn, then the next four, and so on.
