Larry's eLessons!

April 1, 2020 Vol. 15 Issue #7

Hi all,
We're going to continue working to make sure you have lots of bridge to keep you occupied while staying safe at home.

NEW Larry's Quizzes--Same Hand, Different Auction

As you get more experienced, one area that you should improve upon is your hand evaluation. Newer players start to see the importance of long suits, and as we get more advanced we know the importance of spot cards (10s, 9s, etc). As we progress even farther, we should realize how our hand's worth can change on the auction. In this quiz, you'll take one hand and see how its worth varies based on how the auction proceeds.

Article--Learning 2/1

We hear all the time that people would like to learn to play 2-over-1, but they never have the time to devote to it. Well, now there are no excuses, and here's a secret: it's easy! We recommend teaching 2-over-1 even to new players since it's a much more straightforward system than Standard American. Larry has written about 2/1 a lot (including his book), but you can learn the fundamentals at the Learning Center Below.
