Revised! Opening Leads Quiz #2

The opening lead is often a guess. Even the best players in the world don't guess right all the time. That said, you can make successful leads if you pay close attention to the auction. Your lead can convey a lot of information to partner as well, so be sure to check if you are sending the right message in this quiz.

7-Part Series

In a good partnership, you almost have a psychic connection regarding bidding. You know how partner approaches bidding and what their style is. There are two different ways to develop this connection. 1) Play together for 20 years or 2) Fill out a convention card.

In this series, Michael will take you step-by-step through the process of filling out a convention card with a partner. You'll learn which parts require extensive discussion and find out how to approach those discussions. The convention card is a great jumping off point for partnership agreements, but you need to know how to navigate each area. Michael will not only discuss what's on the card, but what agreements make for partnership bliss.
