BMS Bridge Byte: Opener's Rebid After a Negative Double

The negative double is the most important convention in bridge. That means that we need to know it inside and out. Part of that understanding is to have a good grasp of how to bid as the opener after partner makes a Negative double. Learn more in this clip from Michael's Webinar on Negative Doubles.

NEW! Larry's Quizzes: Responding to the Feature Ask

Preempts are wide-ranging bids. The responder wants to know if the preempter has a good hand (given the seat and vulnerability) or a bad hand. With a good hand, we show a feature. Are you responding to partner's 2NT asking bid correctly? Find out in this new quiz.

NEW! July BBO Bidder's Challenge: Results

Each month, BBO conducts a bidding contest that you can participate in for free. Larry also answers every problem and gives his reasoning. See if you would have made the same call as the panel, and you can also participate in the August bidding panel by clicking on the "hands" link at the top of the page.
