Todd's Tips

Words of wisdom from Robert's lectures

Beware of "frozen suits." A frozen suit is a suit that neither declarer nor defender can successfully attack. If declarer has Q32 opposite J54, he can't win a trick if the honors are split. However, if the defenders play the suit first, then declarer will always win a trick. As declarer, try to get your defenders to play this type of suit. As a defender, this is another good reason not to start on new suits.

Don't forget to get all of Robert's helpful hints and lesson by attending his morning lectures at 9 am and afternoon Q & A (with special guests!)

Bridge Etiquette

-Show good manners; be polite to opponents.

-Don't yell at or criticize your partner.

-Don't offer unsolicited post-mortems (better to be silent and thought a fool than to open your mouth and remove all doubt).

- Be scent-sensitive. Some people have an extreme sensitivity to fragrances and in an enclosed space, it can trigger asthma or allergic reactions. Please don't wear cologne, perfume or scented lotions.

Need A Partner? No worries!

If you want to play and need a partner and/or teammates, check in at the partnership desk and we will help you put your team together.

Need A Team? No worries! BUT...

The earlier you let us know, the better. We'll try to introduce you in advance of the start of the knockout or swiss so you can be sure to only get one entry.
