

BRIDGE with LARRY COHEN

May 19th edition Part 5

Being stuck at home offers us an opportunity to focus on our bridge games (rather than the news). You can see our articles below or find out about our LIVE (or recorded) webinars at Larryco.com or sign up directly at the bottom of this email.

We have had great feedback on our "Bridge Made Simple" webinars and we thought we would take a few seconds to list why we think they are so popular.

Why "Bridge Made Simple" Webinars

- You can watch LIVE (participating in the fun chat and questions) or you can watch "at your leisure" after the show has aired.
- We employ a staff of professors who can answer your questions in real time if you're watching LIVE.
- All of our webinars come with professionally produced handouts - available only to webinar customers via a backdoor link.
- Larry's webinars come with his famous Free Deals in quiz form - available only to webinar customers via a backdoor link.
- We cap the number of class participants so that we can answer every students' questions.

- If you miss registering or if we are sold out, you can still get the recorded webinar in the store after it airs.
- Larry and Michael both use proven techniques in the pace and way with which they speak and present the information, always infused with a good amount of humor.
- Whether you watch LIVE or want to watch at your leisure, you'll have a link and password to watch as many times and as often as you want.
- We hope to see you at one of our "Bridge Made Simple" webinars soon!
