LARRY COHEN WEBINARS

Thursdays @ 2:00PM Eastern
BMS Game Immediately Following
Includes postmortem with Michael

Larry's
Trailer

The opening lead is made based on incomplete information. All we know is our hand and the auction. At trick two, however, we get to see the dummy. Do we continue what partner started or switch paths in light of the new information? In this series, Larry will show you how to interpret the dummy and the auction to make successful decisions at this pivotal point in the play.

You don't have to have attended Parts 1 & 2 in order to follow 3 & 4.

Apr 22 - Part 3

Apr 29 - Part 4

MARTY AND LARRY WEBINARS - NEW!

Mondays @ 2:00PM Eastern
Webinar includes lesson notes.

Please join Larry and Marty for their lessons on slam bidding. They will bid a good number of potential slam hands together. Each of the hands was carefully selected to be challenging but non-trivial. All of their auctions will be based on popular conventions.

Of course, for every bid made, the expert will explain his complete thought process behind the bid he chose. And since it is so important to avoid BAD slams, some of the hands will involve logical auctions where slam is tempting but should be avoided.

We absolutely guarantee that you will learn a great deal, and in the future YOU will do much better in the important area of "Bidding good slams but avoiding bad ones."

In this series, Michael will explore which points are actually worthwhile and help you evaluate and re-evaluate your hands. Prepare to look at your hand differently!
